

Effective fall semester 2013, Colorado State University will no longer be offering the option of enrolling your spouse, dependent or domestic partner in the CSU Student Health Insurance Plan.

There are many insurance products available for your spouse, dependents and domestic partner in the open insurance marketplace. Below are some options that may assist in your search for a plan to meet your needs. CSU has not qualified nor do we sponsor or endorse any of the plans outlined. This information is being provided only as an aid in your search.

International Spouse, Domestic Partner and Dependents

Seven Corners - www.sevencorners.com/interactiveguide/HWMP2YQ

“Seven Corners is one of the most experienced international travel health insurance, trip insurance, and specialty benefit management companies in the industry. Since 1993, we have provided protection and professional assistance services to hundreds of thousands of international travelers - including U.S. citizens traveling overseas and foreign nationals traveling to the United States.”

Colorado Health Benefit Exchange - <http://www.connectforhealthco.com/> and <http://www.coloradohealthinsuranceexchange.us/>

Per the Colorado Health Benefit Exchange:

“The Colorado Health Benefit Exchange is a new marketplace where Coloradans can shop for and buy health insurance based on quality and price. When open for business in October 2013, the Exchange will provide quality health plans and easy-to-understand information so that you have more control and better protections when buying health insurance. The goal is to make health insurance shopping easy, quick and secure. Financial assistance to people with certain income levels to reduce your up-front costs will be provided..”

Applications will be accepted starting in October of 2013 for a January, 2014 effective date.
