Individuals who hold endowed chairs and professorships at Colorado State University have outstanding qualifications, demonstrated success in their fields, and high records of achievement. They generate research and programs that transform our world and attract the best and brightest students to CSU.
Your support is vital for recruiting the best scholars for endowed chairs and professorships who keep CSU competitive with other top universities, strengthen our programs and reputation, and provide a world-class education for students that will last a lifetime.

ENDOWED CHAIRS AND FUNDING LEVELS

Presidential Chair ($6 million minimum)
The title of Presidential Chair is the highest and most prestigious honor Colorado State University may award to a faculty or administrative professional member. Annual allocations from the endowment are expected to fund the salary, benefits, research, and operational costs for the position.

University Chair ($3 million minimum)
The reputations of University Chair recipients reflect their special creative and/or research contributions as well as their efforts in shaping the understanding of their fields. Annual allocations from the endowment are expected to fund the salary, benefits, and operational costs for the position.

College Chair ($1.5 million minimum)
College Chairs are expected to be of national stature with an established track record of achievement. The annual allocations from College Chairs supplement salaries and/or operations of these accomplished leaders. A college must commit an appropriate level of funding to cover the base salary, benefits, and operational costs for the position.

ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIPS AND FUNDING LEVELS

University Professorship ($750,000 minimum)
The achievements and qualifications of University Professors are expected to be extremely high, setting them apart from the majority of their colleagues. Earnings from these endowments supplement faculty salary lines; the college or unit must have the full base salary line covered for a University Professorship.

College Professorship ($375,000 minimum)
College Professorships are typically held by gifted faculty members and administrative professionals whose accomplishments indicate great potential. Their efforts are focused on honing their teaching skills and on carving out areas of research or performance. Earnings from these endowments supplement faculty salary lines; the college or unit must have the full base salary line covered for a College Professorship.

For more information on endowed chairs and professorships, go to:
http://supporting.colostate.edu/the-value-of-endowment

An equal-access and equal-opportunity University